The details are as follows:

On 28th November 2024, Drugs Control Administration officials raided Hyderabad Multispeciality Hospital, located in Judges Colony, Malakpet, Hyderabad, and detected the sale of medicines at excessively high prices, exceeding the MRP printed on the labels of the medicines.

The medicines sold at exorbitant prices include Normal Saline Injections, Avil Injection (Pheniramine Maleate Injection), which is used to treat allergic conditions, Zofer Injection (Ondansetron Injection), which is used to treat and prevent nausea and vomiting, IV Sets, which are used to administer medications or fluids to a patient through the intravenous (IV) route, and Spafast-D Injection (Thiocolchicoside + Diclofenac Injection), which is used to relieve pain.

During the raid, DCA officials seized sales bills for drugs sold at exorbitant prices at the pharmacy located within the hospital.
